

Finals Week End Will Feature Band Of Sam Donahue

BY JIM BAKER

Sam Donahue and his orchestra will play for June finals, June 10 and 11, it was announced by Thomas E. Thorne, chairman of the dance committee.

Both of the dances will be held in the amphitheatre at Matoaka Lake. The Friday night dance will last from 10 p. m. to 2 a. m., and the dance on Saturday night will be from 9 to midnight. In case of inclement weather the dances will be held in Blow Gym.

Besides the two dances, Donahue will present a concert on Saturday at 4 p. m. in front of the Wren Building. This will be held in Phi Beta Kappa Hall in the event of rain.

Donahue, who plays the tenor sax, is currently touring the country playing mostly at colleges and universities. Included in his latest engagements were proms at Yale University and Texas A. & M. All told, the Donahue combination has played over 50 proms in the past two years, 20 of his college engagements coming during this current semester.

Donahue's band, recording for Capitol, has made several hit recordings in the past year. Some of these are I Never Knew, Melancholy Baby and Saxie-Boogie.

Donahue played with several name bands before forming his own in 1941. Among these were Gene Krupa, Harry James and Benny Goodman.

A Navy veteran, Donahue played a one-hour battle of music with his Navy band against the Glenn Miller AAF orchestra in London, during the war, attracting the largest audience in that city's musical history. Donahue emerged as the United Kingdom's number one foreign band favorite.

Mortar Board, ODK Choose 20 Members

Eight women and 12 men were tapped for Mortar Board and Omicron Delta Kappa respectively at the convocation held last Thursday at 10 a. m.

The women who attained Mortar Board are Nancy Kurtz, Pat Stringham, Patsy Jones, Marcia MacKenzie, Nicky Dillard, Barbara Campbell, Yvonne Hickey and Mrs. Harold Fowler. Nancy was named president of the organization.

The men honored by ODK were Bud Bridges, George Fricke, Hugh Haynie, John Dayton, Lou Bailey, George Hughes, Ben Johnston, Ben Johnston, Chester Giermak, Jim Logan, Ronald King, Peter Boynton and Dr. H. Hudnall Ware of Richmond.

Mortar Board, a national organization, is a women's honorary society whose members are elected in their junior year on the basis of service, scholarship and leadership. Women who are eligible must have obtained a scholastic record of .3 above the student body average during their years in college.

Omicron Delta Kappa is an honorary society for men, electing its members annually from the student body on the basis of scholarship and prominence in athletics, social and religious activities, publications and other cultural fields.

Tuga Wilson, retiring president of Mortar Board, presented Ginger Lynch with a silver cup for having attained the highest academic average among sophomore women for the last three semesters.

Varsity Show Will Open Tomorrow

'THE IDEA!' exclaim the Colonial gals in a scene from 'Carry Me Back,' the wacky musical comedy to be staged by the Backdrop Club tomorrow, Thursday and Friday.

By Norbourne B. Botetourt

The William and Mary Backdrop Club will open with its 1949 varsity show production Carry Me Back tomorrow night in Phi Beta Kappa Hall for the first of three Williamsburg performances.

With full orchestra and a company of 125, the Backdrop Clubbers will romp through a two-and-a-half hour musical satire on everything colonial. From all promises, Carry Me Back will be another musical riot in the finest Backdrop Club tradition. With music by Ben B. Johnston, lyrics by Wilford Leach and Ben Johnston and dances staged by Jean Cutler, the company will introduce 23 brand new numbers.

The score of Carry Me Back was recently contracted for by Broadcast Music Incorporated, who is releasing sheet music of the songs throughout the country simultaneously with the premier performance in Williamsburg. Last Thursday the Backdrop Club orchestra and singers recorded a special radio preview of the show to be carried at 10:30 tonight by Richmond radio station WRVA. On Friday the House of Sauer radio show, carried by WRNL, will devote the entire broadcast to music from Carry Me Back.

Graduate Members

On Friday night a large portion of the audience will be made up of graduate Backdrop Club members who are returning to Williamsburg especially to see the show.

The William and Mary Backdrop Club remains among the only varsity show producing groups in the country, composed entirely of student writers, directors, actors and dancers. The Backdrop Club has taken a unique position among campus comedy productions in that it calls on no outside or professional aid. The entire production has been staged, produced and performed by the 214 energetic Backdrop Club members.

Leading this year's production have been William Harper and

Pan-Hellenic Council Reveals Rushing Dates

"The Pan-Hellenic Council wishes to announce that rushing will take place in November of 1949 following mid-semester exams instead of early October as previously planned. The situation produced by a great increase in the enrollment of women for the coming year and the adjustment which necessarily must be made caused the council to formulate this decision."

Committee Selects Richard W. Beatty Exchange Scholar To Exeter, England

Richard Beatty has been selected as the Exeter Scholar from William and Mary to attend the University College of the South West, Exeter, England, whose session opens near the end of September, 1949, and extends to the end of June, 1950.

The announcement was made by Dr. W. G. Guy, chairman of the committee on the award of the Exeter College Scholarship and professor of chemistry.

During the same period a student from Exeter College will attend William and Mary. The scholarship is open to students who are completing their sophomore year, or who are members of the graduating class and who have attained a commendable scholastic average.

A 24-year-old graduate from William and Mary who obtained his B.A. degree in political science last February, Beatty is a native of New York but has spent most of his life in California. In his freshman year he attended UCLA and then joined the Army Specialized Training Program in Europe for one year. Upon his return to the United States, Beatty entered the Carnegie Institute of Technology for a semester and then joined a rifle infantry company in the army, seeing active combat duty in Europe for another 12 months.

Following his discharge Beatty attended the summer session at the University of Southern California in 1946 and in September entered William and Mary. As a student here at the college, Beatty has been very active in numerous campus activities. A member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, he was vice-president of his senior class and a member of the Men's Honor Council. He served on the editorial board of the Royalist and was musical director of the 1947 varsity show. Beatty is also known for his musical abilities as pianist in the college dance band.

At the present he is student columnist for the Alumni Gazette. Upon hearing of recent selection as Exeter Scholar Beatty replied simply, "I am very grateful for this fine opportunity, for since my return from Europe I have always desired to study abroad and to be able to participate in the folkways of other countries."

Exeter College is an undergraduate, coeducational college of high scholastic standing and offers a wide variety of studies. Vacations at Christmas and at Easter, of one month each, will offer opportunities for travel. All college fees, tuition, registration and residence, will be waived for the exchange student who will live in one of the residence halls of the college.

Late Rushing

The announcement of late rushing made in this issue by the members of the Pan Hellenic Council should cause great relief among those sorority women who were alarmed at the prospect of a rush week which would end two days before Homecoming. As the Flat Hat has advocated late rushing as the only fair policy to freshman women, we too welcomed the announcement.

Regardless of our sentiments on the subject of late rushing, however, we feel that the action taken by the administration in the matter was, on the whole, unfair to the Pan Hellenic Council. The dates originally approved by the council for rushing were presented to the proper authorities soon after spring vacation. We are certain that they were well aware at that time that, because of the large enrollment of new women next fall, early rushing would be impractical.

Instead of taking immediate action, however, the college waited until last Friday. At this time, the sorority presidents, the chairman of the Pan Hellenic Council and the council's junior members met with Dr. Pomfret and were informed of his views on the situation. As it was both necessary and expedient to publish next year's rush rules as soon as possible, the sorority presidents had to assume the responsibility of speaking for their respective chapters and accept the proposed revision on the spot.

By delaying action as it did, the college prevented the council from submitting the matter to the sororities as a whole. Although, in all probability, the outcome would have been the same, sorority women did not vote to have late rushing; their presidents merely accepted a decision made by the administration.

That the action taken by the council was a necessary expedient is true. If the college had not delayed in making its views apparent, the council could have submitted the proposed change to the sororities for a vote and would not have been placed in the rather embarrassing position of accepting an administration ultimatum without due consideration.

Finals Band

The workings of the Student-Faculty Dance Committee have been fairly well shielded from public view, and most of us have blandly accepted the choice of bands for the big dances. The selection of Sam Donahue for Finals, however, has led to the disclosure of several facts which we present herewith:

1. The Dance Committee is now working under a deficit of $1,000 as a result of losses sustained from large dances and Saturday night dances.
2. In selecting a band for finals, it was considered the best financial policy to obtain one within the lower price brackets so that there would be little danger of going in the hole and possibly some of the deficit could be made up.
3. It was estimated that 600 couples would attend June Finals. This is approximately the same number that attended Finals in 1941 when there was an enrollment of 1400 students. With tickets at seven dollars per couple, all expenses could be paid and a large part of the deficit eliminated.
4. The final choice of a band within the prescribed price range was made by Mr. Thorne, chairman of the dance committee, not the dance committee itself. Thorne arbitrarily picked out three bands and polled several of his classes on which of the three they would prefer. In the end, however, Thorne made his decision after listening to records cut by each of the three bands.

According to the by-laws of the Student Assembly, the dance committee consists of six students and three faculty or administration representatives. One administration representative is the chairman of the committee and has veto power. It is his duty to call meetings at least once a month.

The dance committee decided to delay in selecting a Finals orchestra until the financial statement from the Midwinters dances was available. It planned to meet as soon as possible after receiving this statement and determine how much could be spent on a Finals band, as well as settle on which orchestra would be contracted. The dance committee, however, has not met since March.

In view of these facts, several conclusions may be made. First, the chairman of the dance committee overstepped his rights in choosing an orchestra without receiving the backing of his committee. Chances are that, had a dance committee meeting been called, the same orchestra would have been selected.

Secondly, we disagree with the economic theory behind Thorne's action. It is a maxim that it takes money to make money. Although we have heard that Donahue's orchestra is excellent, it does not possess the name which would attract a large crowd. We feel that more people would be willing to pay ten dollars to hear a really big name band than to pay almost as large a sum and not be sure of what they were getting.

Flat Hat Reports On

Cafeteria Milk

The recent changes in the cafeteria milk have caused considerable comment around campus. After receiving a letter from Charles G. Beck, the manager of Oakland Dairy, the Flat Hat has investigated the situation and offers the following report:

During spring vacation, Mr. Frowert, the former manager of the cafeteria, ordered a large quantity of milk from the Pleasant Walk Dairy. Although Walter Ramseur, the manager of the dairy, told Frowert that this milk could not be used by the small number of students in the college during vacation, Frowert persisted in placing the order, and the milk, unused, became sour. Frowert then asked that Pleasant Walk buy back the unused milk. As Ramseur refused, Frowert then contacted Beck, the manager of the Oakland Dairy, and began to order milk there.

During the winter, milk prices are high, and the dairies make most of their profits during the spring and summer months. Ramseur therefore wrote to Crotty Brothers in Boston and asked them to reconsider their action, as he would necessarily lose money through the loss of the cafeteria account.

Beck, meanwhile, was informed by Frowert that under no circumstances would the cafeteria switch back to Pleasant Walk. As Oakland would be unable to meet the cafeteria's demands for milk in the winter, it contracted with another company for 150 extra gallons of milk per day at a cost of 63 cents a gallon plus an extra five cents per gallon in transportation costs. This contract runs until December 31, and with the loss of the cafeteria account, Beck will be unable to dispose of the milk. He also claims to have invested between $750 and $1000 in order to serve the cafeteria. Beck wrote to Crotty Brothers in Boston on May 5 also asking for reconsideration of their action, but he as yet has received no answer.

The decision to switch back to Pleasant Walk was made by Charles J. Duke, bursar, in consultation with Mrs. O'Neill of the cafeteria. In an interview with the Flat Hat, Duke declared that the decision to switch to Oakland was made without consulting him. Pleasant Walk had served the college satisfactorily for many years, and there was no reason to terminate the account. He further maintained that Pleasant Walk is a local dairy using Virginia milk, while Oakland ships milk from Pennsylvania. He, therefore, feels that it is the duty of a state college to encourage state industry and added that under no circumstances would the college resume relations with Oakland Dairy.

Mr. Sheldon, the new manager of the cafeteria who replaced Frowert, declined to comment on the changes. Mrs. O'Neill remarked that she had been absent during the spring vacation when Pleasant Walk lost the account and had always found their service good. Both dairies are selling milk at seven cents a half pint and, although the cafeteria has run no tests, she assumes the quality of milk is the same.

Mr. Duke declared that students probably feel that Oakland milk was better because it is not homogenized and therefore looks creamier. He added that all milk is of course tested by both state and national commissions and volunteered the information that few local restaurants use homogenized milk. Beck declared that his milk is of the highest grade of butterfat for Grade A milk and of the lowest bacteria count that can be obtained. Ramseur stated that the quality of all milk is inferior in the winter and that Pleasant Walk milk was now improving.

The situation is an unfortunate one in that both dairies stood to lose money through the loss of the cafeteria contract. Pleasant Walk has declined to assume Beck's contract for outside milk, because Beck claims, they cannot afford the price he is paying for it.

Beck appealed to the Flat Hat for assistance because he had seen complaints about the cafeteria on its pages and, as he had received favorable comments on his milk from students and nurses in the infirmary, he thought that perhaps student opinion might favor him. After Duke's flat refusal to deal with Oakland Dairy, we find that there is little we can do but report the facts.

Tapping Ceremony

It is always gratifying when an organization takes constructive criticism to heart and harkens to the cries of the dissatisfied. Last year, following the Mortar Board and Omicron Delta Kappa tapping ceremony, a number of loud complaints were leveled against the apparent discrepancies in the standards of the two honorary groups. Many felt that ODK had not chosen wisely and hinted at "politics" and other dark accusations.

This year we feel that both organizations made excellent choices. For once and for all, the bases of selection were cleared up and the imposing list of accomplishments read after the name of each new member left no doubt as to his worthiness. We believe that both groups were as objective as possible in selecting their members. Where there was any question whether a candidate were qualified or not, apparently both Mortar Board and ODK took careful consideration in reaching their final decision.

Because both of these organizations represents the highest honor which a student can receive for non-academic accomplishments, we earnestly hope that they will continue to select only those students whose total contribution to the college is so great that there can be no criticism. It is only through maintaining the highest standards for membership that such groups will retain the respect of the student body.

Stag Week At Kansas University Ends Abruptly As Coeds Stage Riot

Editor's Note: The following story is reprinted from the DAILY TAR HEEL, student publication at the University of North Carolina.

"Stag Week" among the boys at Kansas University ended prematurely today.

The coeds evidently inspired a near riot which involved police, the Dean of Men, a sorority house-mother, various injuries and resulted in the calling-off of the anti-girl demonstration.

The boys, particularly of the fraternities, organized the "week" during which no boy was to speak to a coed on penalty of being dunked in the campus lake by the other boys.

No one was quite sure what happened except that yesterday afternoon a group of coeds invaded the man-sacred precincts of several fraternity houses and "made themselves at home."

That was the start and by midnight, 500, to 1,000 boys, with some coeds intermingled, were engaged in an uproar that sent 10 boys and two girls to the hospital.

The Dean of Men got dunked by two buckets of water, the house-mother of a sorority house was drenched at the business end of a fire hose, and a dozen or more sorority house and women's dormitories were invaded by the rampaging boys.

University officials were silent on what if any disciplinary action was planned. One thing was certain, however, "Stag Week," which was scheduled to end tomorrow night, definitely was over.

Laurence Woodruff, dean of men, received two buckets of water from the accurate pitching arm of an unidentified student, but succeeded eventually in quieting the situation, at midnight. Before he gained the upper hand, the sorority houses and dormitories had been invaded. Windows at the ADPI house were broken, water from a fire hose drenched a wall, a piano and the house-mother, Mrs. Charles Wentworth, at the Tri-Delt house. Furniture and rugs were soaked at several other houses.

Editor's Notes:

Editor's Note: Ronald King's column has not appeared in the FLAT HAT recently, because King is seriously ill at McGuire Hospital in Richmond. We hope to have him with us next week.

Letter

To The Editor:

Your May 10th issue reports that Mr. Casey found World Citizen Garry Davis an "eccentric fanatic," and that his organization was losing popular interest.

This statement is not compatible with the facts.

At his last public appearance Davis drew a crowd of 20,000 people, his biggest ever; and his Registry of World Citizens is assuming unexpected proportions. These are hardly evidence of declining public interest.

Is Davis an eccentric fanatic? Such eminent men as President Auroil of France, Claude Bourdet, U. N. Assembly President Evatt and Albert Camus don't think so and would take issue with Mr. Casey on that score.

It is easier to depreciate than to understand. The "First World Citizen" is a man of theatrical background. As such he is sensitive to and knows the value of dramatic presentation. This, combined with missionary zeal, might explain his seemingly eccentric conduct.

This letter is not to be regarded as a blanket approval of Davis or his cohorts, a few of whom are communists who inject themselves into any crowd registering unrest. Rather, it is intended to show that the scornful dismissal of the idea of world federation is to ignore the inexorable march of history. Parliaments all over the world continue to incorporate world federation clauses into their constitutions (the latest being France, Italy and West Germany).

Let Mr. Casey remember that: 1900 years ago it was announced in a powerful, new voice, that all men are brothers. The scornful smirk still sits lightly on men's faces. The message remains the same.

Sincerely,
Sidney Schwartz, President,
W&M chapter, United World Federalists.

Editor's Notes We are of the opinion that Mr. Casey was not scoffing at the idea of Christian brotherhood but at the methods used by George Davis to inspire it.

Furthermore, we are inclined to feel that the march of world federalism, or anything for that matter, cannot be classified as "inexorable."

Williams Shows Fancy Sprinting Ability

When Francis McFall, high point man for the Tribe trackmen last season, graduated in February, he left a gaping hole for Coach Al Thomas to fill. That his 50 points would be hard to replace, was the general consensus of opinion during early drills this spring.

The man who filled those shoes was tall, likeable Garnett (Chuck) Williams, just another sprinter last season, who turned in an occasional good race. He earned his letter, but didn't make too much of an impression on the track faithful.

This spring, however, Williams, after reporting later than most of the squad, showed flashes of speed that boded ill for sprinters from opposing teams.

The Alderson, W. Va., senior started off well and has been gunning it all season, piling up a total of 54½ points to top McFall's contribution by a shade.

He hit his all-time record this spring when he zipped off the century in 9.8 seconds. In the next meet, he was again under ten, clocking the distance in 9.9. Williams was highly regarded by the experts when the Big Six meet came around, and had it not been for an unfortunate stumble at the start of the hundred final, the swift Tribesman may have taken the event. As it was, he recovered his stride and managed to squeeze in fourth.

Williams, who is 27 years old, prepped at Fork Union, where he competed in basketball, football and track. His education was interrupted by the war, and he spent 3½ years in the Navy. When he returned to school, Chuck, a physical education major, spent his time working towards his degree, which he will receive this June.

Chuck has his own personal rooting section in his wife, Doris, and young son, Mike. They often watch practice in the afternoons and seldom miss a meet. Mike, a lively three-year-old, has been virtually adopted by the team, and vice-versa.

A job is waiting for the Tribe star when he finishes school, as Williams recently signed a one year contract with Manchester High School to serve as Athletic Director and coach football, basketball and baseball.

Braves Top Tar Heels, 8-2, For Southern Team Crown

William and Mary's tennis Indians trounced North Carolina, 8-1 yesterday afternoon to finish off an undefeated season and thereby win their fourth straight Southern Conference championship. The victory snapped a 23-match streak of the Tar Heels and gave the Indians the net title on the basis of percentage.

The win was number 74 on the record streak of the Indians, and marked the completion of their fourth straight undefeated season.

But the big story yesterday was Fred Kovaleski's repeat win over Vic Seixas 10-8, 6-4. Kovaleski's win was a hard one but apparently one indicative of the two players' relative ability.

Kovaleski used accuracy in his placements to keep the Carolina ace in hot water all through the match and finally defeat him. The play of Kovo was of a steady type which was hard to beat.

The Tar Heels won the number two singles as Clark Taylor eked out a narrow 6-2, 5-7, 6-2 win over Howe Atwater. Bob Galloway defeated Lastey Dameron, 6-1, 6-8, 6-0; Jim Macken defeated Charlie Rice, 6-0, 6-2; Dick Randall downed Duke Wilder, 6-0, 6-2 and Huck Cole topped Jim Winstead, 6-3, 6-0.

Carolina forfeited the number one doubles match when Taylor, Seixas' partner, came down sick after three days of tournament and match play. They forfeited to Kovaleski and Atwater. Galloway and Bill Ozenberger vanquished Rice and Wilder, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3 and Macken and Randall polished off Dameron and Winstead, 6-1, 6-0.

The victory was one of the most important of the length W&M streak, and it was one of the best.

Fred Kovaleski added another upset to his imposing record for the year by defeating Victor Seixas of the University of North Carolina for the Southern Conference singles championship at Chapel Hill Saturday.

The big William and Mary senior defeated the defending titlist in straight sets, 6-4, 11-9, 6-4. But Seixas and Clark Taylor of UNC teamed up to defeat Kovaleski and Howe Atwater in the doubles finals, 6-2, 6-1, 6-4.

Saturday's victory was one of Kovaleski's best. He was able to apply the pressure when pressure was necessary to down Seixas, the number seven ranking amateur in the nation.

Seixas got off to a 4-2 lead in the opening set of the finals, but Kovaleski rallied to win four games in a row and move into a one-set lead. The second set was a marathon affair, going to 20 games before Kovaleski was able to win it.

He was behind much of the time in that second set, having to rally seven different times to tie the score in games. In fact, Seixas had set point twice in the 12th game but was unable to come through with the one necessary point.

The pressing of Kovaleski finally enabled him to take the set.

In the final set, Seixas again moved into a slight lead of 2-1 before Kovaleski fought back to take a 5-3 advantage. Seixas won the next game and then Big Fred took the next for set, match and championship.

Seixas and Taylor had a somewhat easier time of it in the doubles, losing only three games in the first three sets. The Indian (Continued on page 5)

A William and Mary student last week informed us that the Big Green tennis team would be in for some rather unorthodox tennis etiquette when W&M players tangle with men from the University of North Carolina on their trip to Chapel Hill for the Southern Conference tournament and the match with the Tar Heels.

They did indeed run into some treatment at the hands of elements of the gathered 1,200 fans which was uncalled for, to say the least.

The Associated Press dispatch covering the tournament spoke of a single individual giving Kovaleski a going over in his match with Seixas, and worded between Kovaleski and the person, whom he singled out.

The controversy arose over some decisions on whether balls were good. Qualified officials judge the accuracy of the shots, and they sometimes make mistakes. But any outspoken complaint is in violation of the accepted rules of behavior on the part of tennis fans.

While there are those who feel that tennis should be subjected to the same type of support given baseball and basketball teams, the fact remains that the accepted rules and practice forbid such action. If an individual insists on such action, he should not be allowed to remain.

But perhaps there are times when such action is condoned.

Kovaleski's stock again was boosted by his impressive win over Seixas Saturday. He played the kind of never-say-die tennis that breeds champions.

So far this year, Kovo has beaten three of the top amateurs of the country. His win over Cochell in the indoors in New York in March, his win over Bill Vogt in Bermuda in April and his win over Seixas in Chapel Hill in May were all fine wins.

If he continues his great play so far demonstrated in the early months of the year, he may add even more impressive names in June, July and August.

Kovaleski has the natural ability to become one of America's greatest tennis players. His continuing work will raise him considerably higher on the national (Continued on page 5)

Robison Gets Lone Bingle Off Ramer As Tribesmen Absorb 15-0 Pasting

William and Mary's baseball team displayed its poorest brand of baseball this past week on the road when the team lost two Southern Conference games and the Big Six Championship.

The only thing hotter than the weather at Richmond's Millhiser Field Saturday was the Spider's ace pitcher Dan Ramer. Big Dan shut out the Indians with a masterful one hitter to hand the Tribesmen their worst defeat of the season, 15-0.

Ramer faced but 30 batters, which is only three over par in the game that decided the Big Six Championship. Nine Indians watched the husky right hander's blazing fast ball or curve go by for the third strike. Four men reached first base, three on free passes, and one of these was a victim of a fast double play.

Hit In Fourth

Harry Robison's fourth inning single spoiled Ramer's bid for a no-hitter. Robison's hit came with two outs, and went over second base into the outfield. Harry was the only Tribesman to reach second base when he stole it two pitches later. Bob Ward was the only other Indian to get the ball out of the infield.

Coach Rogers nominated Jimmy Stewart to face the Spiders. Stewart, while warming up before the game, felt the recurrence of the muscle injury that was operated on last summer, but the game New Jersey started anyway.

The Spiders picked up an unearned run in the first, and when Stewart was no longer able to throw hard, the Spiders finished him with a six hit, four run, barrage in the second inning.

Big Innings

The Richmond team then added three runs in the fourth, seventh and eighth innings, and a single marker in the sixth from the offerings of Bob Gill, Randy Mallory, Hi Wardwell and Bill Stone.

W&M Athletes Place In Honorary Group

William and Mary's athletes are well represented in Omicron Delta Kappa, leadership fraternity. Captain Chet Giermak of the basketball team and co-captain elect George Hughes of the football team were elected to the body last week.

Others already in the group were Bob Steckroth, co-captain of the football team in 1947 and Fred Kovaleski, now Southern Conference singles champion in tennis

Tom Billingsly led the Spider's hit parade with a double and two singles, and Ramer aided his own cause with three singles in Richmond's 18 hit attack.

Ramer's effort was the first defeat by Richmond to a Big Green team this year. In nine previous meetings, the Indians were victorious every time.

Maryland Wins

Although the Indians outthit the University of Maryland 13-10 at College Park, Md. on Thursday, they ended up behind, 10-7, in the score that counts.

Weak fielding was the main cause of the Indians' setback.

The Tribesmen made a single tally in the first and added two more in the fourth frame. In the fifth they put together singles by Ed Magdziak, Olaf Hedman, and Sherman Robinson for three runs and increased their lead to 5-1.

In the bottom half of the fifth, the Old Liners came up with five runs on six hits and an error. They sewed the game up in the sixth with four more runs. Randy Mallory then replaced starter Hi Wardwell and held Maryland hitless.

Ed Magdziak led his teammates at bat with three hits, while Harry Robison, Hedman and Sherman Robinson each collected a pair of safeties.

The Indians' overall record of 13 wins against seven defeats will get three tests this week. Today and Thursday the Indians will encounter Hampden-Sydney and Langley Field on the road. The season will come to an end this Saturday when the Tribesmen will play a return match here with Langley Field.

Creekmur, Lindsay Star For Cinder Team; Maryland Tops Runners In Closing Meet

Lou Creekmur and Sam Lindsay were the big noises last Tuesday, when the Maryland runners closed out the varsity season by administering a 34-41 whipping. This was the final dual meet of the spring for the Thomasmen, giving them a 3-6 mark in that competition.

Creekmur continued on his merry way, breaking records for the fourth time this season. He cracked two marks which he had just set May 7 in the shot put. His throw of 49 feet 2½ inches eclipsed the school and stadium records by a half-foot.

Lindsay turned in his best mile of the year in leading the Marylanders to the tape. He trailed for the best part of the race, and stepped out in the last 300 yards to win by at least 20 yards in the fast time of 4:26. It so happens that Lindsay's father was a miler, and 4:26 was his best time—Sam plans to better it in the conference meet.

The only other first place besides Lindsay's and Creekmur's was won by high jumper George Sheehan. Dick Reymier had a tie for first place in the pole vault. Seconds were turned in by Chuck Williams, Dick Scofield, Bullet Lawson and Lou Hoitsma, who had two. Third place winners were Bill Garrison, Hugh DeSampier, Don Day, Joe Mark, Ed Goddin, Les Lamm and Snake Drake.

Lou Hoitsma garnered six points to lead the Thomasmen in the point-making.

Coach Thomas plans to take seven or eight men to the conference meet this Friday and Saturday at Chapel Hill. Those who are expected to make the trip are Chuck Williams, 100 and 220; Sam Lindsay, mile; Clyde Baker and Bullet Lawson, two-mile; Lou Creekmur and Lou Hoitsma, shot put; Lou Hoitsma, discus and Harry Wenning, javelin. Wenning is a doubtful member of the squad due to his injured arm, but will go if it comes around in time.

Tomorrow afternoon the Indians from the Norfolk Division will invade Cary Field for a meet with the freshman and junior varsity trackmen. This will close the season for those trackmen who are not going to the conference. The meet starts at 3:15 p. m.

Coach Thomas announced that the track picture will be taken tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m., and requests all members of the squad to be present.

Lambda Chi Nine Clinches Fraternity Title; Battle Royal Rages In Independent Loop

Thompson To Play With All-Stars

Tommy Thompson, one of the greatest of the centers to come out of the South, will play on the college all-star squad in the annual game at Chicago this summer.

He was picked by the Chicago Tribune for the contest slated for late August between the cream of the graduated college material and the pro champions.

Thompson will follow such outstanding men in the all-star tilt as Buster Ramsey in 1946 and his younger brother, Knox, last year. The two Ramseys are among the best of the professional guards, while Thompson appears to be one of the brightest prospects among the rising centers.

The Browns selected Thompson as their number one choice over an attractive field of gridiron talent. He is expected to give the regular Brownie center and captain of the team a rousing battle for a starting berth once the season rolls around.

This year's all-star game will give fans something of a comparison of the relative abilities of Thompson and Chuck Bednarik, fine Pennsylvania center who gained almost universal acclaim in his last couple of seasons in college. (Continued on page 5) but will have to beat the Flying Vets Wednesday and the Sigma Roses Thursday to remain there. A single loss by the Clubbers would put them in a tie with the Rubber Guts.

The play-off between the two leagues is tentatively scheduled to start the end of this week. The team winning the best out of three will be the champions.

The two games which decided the championship for Lambda Chi were the victories of Sigma Rho over Pi KA and SAE over Sigma Rho.

SAE came from behind to beat Sigma Rho on Tuesday 5-4. Pee Wee Sanderlin scored the winning run when he was squeezed home from third on a bunt by Dickie Lewis.

On Thursday Hank Blanc of Pi KA and Sigma Rho's Chet Mackiewicz got tied up in a pitchers duel. Twice Sigma Rho loaded the bases with no outs and was unable to score. The only run of the game came in the last inning when with one down Mackiewicz singled to center. Paul Yewcic, the next batter, rifled a single to right field, and when the fielder let the ball go through, Mackiewicz scored.

The other results in the fraternity league found Pi KA shutting out SAE 12-0, Theta Delt topping Kappa Sigma 11-8, Lambda Chi besting Phi Tau 3-1, KA upsetting SAE 7-3, Phi Tau winning over Theta Delt 3-2, and Pi KA beating Kappa Sigma 10-4.

In the independent league the Flying Vets beat the Sigma Roses 7-6, the Rubber Guts won 17-5 over the Purple Passioners, the Red Carnations topped the Studs 11-5, the Rubber Guts shellacked the Sigma Roses 17-3, the Flying Vets won from the Red Mill A. C. 16-3, and the Rubber Guts handed the Flying Vets their first defeat 4-2.

The all important intramural track meet is scheduled for May 23 and 24. The intramural championship seems destined to be determined on these days.

On Monday, the 23rd, the shot put, discus, high jump, and broad jump will be run-off, and the preliminaries of the 100, 220, 440 and 880 dashes are scheduled. Tuesday the meet will be completed when the finals of the dashes are run-off.

Harry Robison Displaces Korczowski As Leading Tribe Hitter With .429

Captain Tommy Korczowski, who had led the Indian batters all season, and has been high in the state circles, has skidded somewhat in the past week or so, and has been replaced by outfielder Harry Robison as the team leader.

Robison, who didn't break into the lineup until almost mid-season, has been pounding opposing pitchers with little regard as he blasted his way to state-wide recognition. Robison sports a .429 average through the Richmond game last Saturday, which is among the top five in the state. The veteran Tribe ballhawk garnered the lone hit off Spider Dan Ramer, Saturday, as the Indians were blanked 15-0.

Korczowski, however, still boasts a hefty .356 mark to trail Robbie, while Spider Webb, with .320, and Olaf Hedman, with .309, complete the top Tribesmen. Captain Tommy still leads the state in homers and runs-batted-in. His seven circuit clouts leads Robison's three, Hedman's two, and Ken Wright's one.

In the pitching department, right-handers Bob Gill and Jimmy Stewart have identical 4-1 records to lead the field. Prior to the Richmond game, Stewart had an earned run average of 1.25 per game, which is fine pitching. Gill also was below the two run mark with 1.81. These averages underwent some change in Richmond. Gill is the strikeout leader on the team, with 58 to his credit.

ladder before he stops, we believe. Richmond's 15-0 victory over William and Mary in baseball last Saturday was the first win of the Spiders over W&M in any sport this school year.

Ex-William and Mary football players will be working out soon for the professional teams with which they have signed. Tommy Thompson of the Cleveland Browns, Jack Bruce of the New York Yankees have already signed, and Pat Haggerty and Lou Hoitsma are both sought-after players.

Thompson should make one of the best professional players in the business. His rough, tough style of play is the kind on which there is a premium among the play-for-pay boys. He was rated as the top collegiate prospect by the Browns.

Other Indian players who will roam the gridirons of the pro teams in the National Football League and the All-America conference include Knox and Buster Ramsey, Harvey Johnson and probably the ever-young Otis Douglas, now coach of the Drexel Tech team at Philadelphia.

(Continued from Page 3) duo won four games in the last set before dropping a 6-4 decision and losing the championship Kovaleski and Tut Bartzan had won last spring.

Bob Galloway was the only other W&M player to go as far as the quarterfinals. He defeated Weathers of Duke to enter that round.

Lyman Chennault had given a good account of himself in losing to McMasters of Duke in three sets and Jim Macken gave Seixas some anxious moments before dropping a two-set decision to him.

Realizing that students must have SOME PLACE to go in the evening, the porches of Clark University will be open nightly.

Women's Wiles

By Dolores Heutte

Looking back along the line—it's always easier to find fault with what has been done and to say what should have been done. Actually this is not such a bad position, if one has the future in mind and the criticism is along constructive lines.

Although much has been done at William and Mary to further women's sports in general and varsity sports in particular, there's still some room for improvement. It might be said in passing, however, that William and Mary has progressed much further along these paths than most of the schools in the state. A partial proof of this fact is the leadership which has been assumed in the Virginia AFCW by our Alma Mater.

A rather singular lack of enthusiasm for varsity sports has been evidenced this year on the part of the women students. This is true particularly of the two upper classes. There are reasons given for this rather apathetic attitude. One of the primary ones, or at least the one that seems to be voiced the most, is the lack of sufficient time to devote to the particular sport. It is granted that many students are pressed for time, but the underclassmen who do participate seem able to find time. A glance at the rosters of the various varsity teams will show that most of the players are drawn from the freshmen and sophomore classes.

But it does not seem possible that the element of time is the real cause for the lack of participation and interest in women's sports. Why does it happen that these women who start out so enthusiastically in their freshman year seem to lose interest with each succeeding year? The underlying reason for this rather strange phenomena is the lack of interest and support on the part of the student body as a whole. It hardly seems worthwhile to spend the time and energy in practices and in planning when no one seems to care anyway.

But there's always next year! Perhaps the story will be different

High School Track Aces To Gather For State Meet Here This Weekend

The best of the high school crop of trackmen will be on hand Friday and Saturday for the State Group I meet at Cary Field. The meet is usually held at the University of Virginia, but was shifted to Williamsburg this spring for a one-year stand.

Some outstanding men will be here to provide competition of almost the calibre of the college Big Six meet here a week ago.

One of the favorites will be Newport News High School, winner of the Tidewater Meet here in April and undefeated in other competition. The Typhoon, coached by Julie Conn, constantly turns out strong teams and has been a frequent winner during the past 15 years.

Among the outstanding performers to be on hand are Bobby Jones, great mile and half miler from Alexandria and Doug Mitchell, ace high jumper of Newport News.

Jones is the interscholastic indoor mile champion. He and Phil Levy of Newport News may put on a good show in the mile and 880. Mitchell jumped 6 feet 3 3/8 inches in the Tidewater meet for the best performance in the state in any competition this year.

Finals are scheduled for Saturday, with the various running preliminaries getting underway Friday.

Twenty-one schools are expected to enter the meet. They are Cradock, Granby, Hampton, Maury, Newport News, Norview, Warwick, Hopewell, John Marshall, Petersburg, Thomas Jefferson, Fairfax, George Washington of Alexandria, Lane, Mount Vernon, Washington and Lee, Andrew Lewis, E. C. Glass, George Washington of Danville, Jefferson Senior of Roanoke and Woodrow Wilson.

Thompson

lege. The two will not get an opportunity to oppose each other if present league setups and rules remain unchanged.

Thompson was one of the most sought-after players of the college ranks last winter, and it was after considerable negotiations that he signed with the Browns in preference to the Washington Redskins of the NFL, which held his draft rights in the older loop.

At Cleveland, he will be playing for Dick Gallagher, a former William and Mary coach, who left the Reservation to go with his old friend and Brown coach, Paul Brown.

then. Such a change will not come about, however, unless there is a change of attitude on the part of the women students in particular and the study body in general. All that is needed is a little perseverance and fortitude.

Squaw Netters Topple Westhampton For Initial Victory With 3-2 Decision

William and Mary's female netters came through Saturday, May 14, with a 3-2 decision over Westhampton College.

Ruth Barnes, playing in the number one singles spot, had little trouble taking it in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-3, over Sidlousky of the Richmond team. As for the number two singles, Elinor Hanson scraped out a 7-5 victory in the first set and then settled down to take the second one 6-2.

Little Jane Copeland engaged in a marathon with Meg Knapp with the Richmonder coming out on top, 6-4, 5-7 and 6-3. In the number one doubles competition, Laura Lowe and Dolores Heutte lost out 7-5 and 6-4 to Dow and Priddy of Westhampton.

Marion Hough and Peg Harmon, the number two doubles partners, came through with a decisive 6-1, 6-2 victory over Grabeel and Carpenter.

This is the first win of the season for the locals. A tentative match has been scheduled for Friday, May 20, with the Town Women.

Women's Softball Nears Completion

With only one week of play remaining, the female nines are now preparing for the stretch drive. Last Monday Chi O II polished off Jefferson II by an 11-4 margin. Jefferson fared better in her second game as she trounced Phi Mu, 9-3, while Kappa II took a forfeit game from the Chi O III team. Tuesday's games were both forfeits, Chandler over Alpha Chi and KD over Pi Phi. On Wednesday the weatherman rained out all scheduled games.

Thursday saw the girls return to action as the Town Girls swooped down on the Theta's for a 12-6 mauling. Chi O took a forfeit from Chandler to close the week's activities.

Action On Walks Asked By Co-Op In Letter To Duke

Members of the General Cooperative Committee voted to send another letter to Charles J. Duke, Jr., bursar of the college, asking for further consideration of the construction of those walks on which Duke had promised immediate action last February.

At the meeting of the committee held last Thursday, another discussion was held on the problem of collecting WSCGA fines. Joan Felix reported that the Student Activities Fee Committee felt that yearbooks could not be held up for non-payment of any fees except those legitimately owed to the college. The General Cooperative Committee, therefore, felt that no action could be taken but expressed sympathy for the problems of the WSCGA officers and urged payment of dues and fines.

In answer to a letter sent to determine fire precautions taken on the campus, the committee learned that an insurance survey was now in progress and that all fire equipment would be checked and put into condition to meet the insurance requirements. It was announced that Dr. John E. Pomfret, president of the college, had given final approval to the amendments to the student government constitution. George J. Oliver, chairman of the committee, welcomed the new members and congratulated the retiring members on their participation in the work of the committee.

— Active In Radio At Early Age — Kliwer Broadcasts Over WVEC

By Jane Waters

Every afternoon from three to five on radio station WVEC there's a program called Baseball Score-box. It's a combination of baseball scores and disc jockey music, and when they're playing, the Dodger baseball games are broadcast. The announcer is Duff Kliwer, director of sports and special events of WVEC and day student at the College of William and Mary.

Kliwer, who lives in Newport News, is a junior majoring in business and a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Fighter Pilot

Explaining his interest in radio work, he said, "I started out in radio at a radio workshop in Colorado Springs at the age of 11 and continued in it through high school. During a five-and-a-half year stretch in the army, Kliwer was a fighter pilot; with the end of the war, he did sports and special events work in connection with public relations for the army.

Once, while detained in Daharan, Saudi Arabia, Kliwer ran a disc jockey show for two weeks. "It was the hottest disc jockey show in the world as far as I was concerned . . . the temperature stayed around 130 degrees!"

Directs Special Events

During his 10 months at the Hampton station, Kliwer has done a 15-minute sports broadcast, the Sport Spot Light and a disc jockey spot. As director of special events, he covers such functions as the Hampton Sea Food Festival, the christening of the Newport News, the Hampton Regatta and last summer, emceed a man-on-the-street broadcast.

"WVEC hopes to go full time; in the event they do, I feel there's a good future in sports and special events. At any rate I want to stay in public relations work," Kliwer stated.

"I have 2000 boys, you know," he said, and then explained that he is director of the Peninsula Knothole Club, an organization which provides free admission to the Newport News Dodgers' home games for the boys. "Aside from that, I spend my spare time writing radio commercials," he concluded.

R. Harvey Chappell Edits Law Review

The distribution of the second issue of the William and Mary Review of Virginia Law is almost complete, according to an announcement by R. Harvey Chappell, Jr., editor of the Review.

The Review, a student publication, is devoted to giving jurisprudence students an opportunity for written expression on legal subjects and to stimulating their interest in significant trends in the law. The articles and comments will discuss current legal problems in Virginia and thus will provide the lawyers of the state with an up-to-date summary and critique of Virginia law as it is developing.

Donald H. Sandie and Edgar K. Wells Jr., have written the notes for this issue, the Review's second, and case comments have been authored by Sidney Schwartz, Wesley Cofer, Jr., Stanley H. Merivis, Frederick B. Price and John M. Hollis.

The Review has been printed through the generosity of the Friends of the College.

Student Fee Committee Approves Salary Increases For Publications

Salary increases for the paid positions on the three student publications were approved by a 5-3 vote of the Student Activities Fee Committee at a meeting last Wednesday.

The new salary scale, formulated upon suggestion of J. Wilfred Lambert, dean of students and chairman of the committee, must be approved by the Board of Visitors before going into effect. Under the proposals of the committee majority, the editor of the Flat Hat and the Colonial Echo will receive $300 per year, representing an increase of $100. The editor of the Royalist will receive $150, representing an increase of $50.

Other salary raises were granted to the business managers of the yearbook and the newspaper, the circulation manager of the Flat Hat and the art editors of the Colonial Echo and the Royalist. The Echo business manager will receive $200 a year and the Flat Hat business manager $150 plus a commission of two per cent on all advertising over $1000 and 8 per cent on all subscriptions. The salary of the managing editor of the paper will also be raised to $150. The Flat Hat circulation manager will receive $100 a year and the two art editors, $50. If the salary increases meet with the approval of the Board of Visitors, they will be met out of surplus funds already at the disposal of the committee and will not require a raise in student fees.

The committee also announced that arrangements has been made to distribute yearbooks from the old special dining hall in Taliaferro. The yearbooks are scheduled to arrive on Friday, May 20. A motion was passed stating that a person serving in a publications office in an acting capacity who did not meet the constitutional requirements for that office would not receive a salary.
